SUFFRAGISTS HOLD SPECIAL MEETING; PLANS FOR FUTURE

Under Leadership of Mrs. J. M. Dowsett Interest Is Rapidly Increasing

A special meeting of the women who are interested in woman's suffrage in Honolulu was called at the home of Mrs. J. M. Dowsett yesterday afternoon. The purpose of this meeting was to adopt a constitution and by-laws.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. J. M. Dowsett, and prayer was offered by Mrs. Sarah Kahi, the vice president. Though there are but few foreign-born women here who are as yet actively interested in this cause, the constitution and by-laws were read both in English and in Hawaiian.

The first article of the constitution says that the suffrage organization here shall be called the National Women's Equal Suffrage Association of Hawaii. The Hawaiian women are anxious to vote and they are ready to do all they can to gain equal suffrage. One of the members said yesterday that up to the present time the native women have not known just what steps to take and therefore have made no progress but she said that with Mrs. Dowsett as the president they feel that the cause will surely advance. All of the members are anxious to be active and want to arouse interest among all of the women in the city irrespective of nationality.

The National Women's Equal Suffrage Association of Hawaii is to have eight officers—the president, two vice presidents, a recording secretary, a corresponding secretary, a translator, a treasurer and an editor of the official organ. The constitution is complete and prepares for the years to come. It is well drafted and the women themselves are satisfied with it.

One of the first steps the suffragists are to take is the house-to-house canvassing in the different precincts. This will be done so that some interest may be awakened in the Hawaiian women who have up to this time shown little interest in suffrage. Also a committee is soon to go around the island of Oahu with the purpose of interesting the women in the Koolau district.

The women in Honolulu are sure to vote some time, and they hope that that sometime will not be very far off. They are earnest, active suffragists, not suffragettes. There is a vast difference in the meaning of these two words, and they are often confused by the people. The Pankhursts, who have been in the limelight for some time and are known as window-smashers, and who do not hesitate to assault men, are suffragettes. They believe in the militant suffrage. This sort of thing does not awaken sympathy but, on the contrary, arouses antagonism, regardless of the fact that every great political reform has been brought about by militant means. The women of America and the women of Hawaii are suffragists. They want to vote because they feel that it is their right but they have no desire whatever to destroy property or people.

The women are not working for suffrage through any selfish motive but for the upliftment of the people and for a better and greater Hawaii.

DESCENDANT OF OLD SPAIN COMES TO HONOLULU

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 30.—Mrs. Rudecinda F. S. de Dodson, who, with her son, Carlos, sailed Wednesday on the Matson liner Wilhelmmina for Honolulu, is a member of one of the oldest Spanish families of the coast—a family which has possessed considerable property in this section since early days.

Mrs. Dodson now contemplates purchasing a portion of the beautiful estate formerly owned by the late Admiral Beckley, at Walkiki beach, and negotiations are already under way.

A mansion home is to be built on the property, and Mrs. Dodson will reside there during the winters. Her son expects to finish his education in the islands, and goes now to enter the College of Hawaii.

MAUI NOTES

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] WAILUKU, Oct. 15.—The Baldwin House kindergarten at Lahaina has opened most successfully this fall. Over 80 children of all ages have been enrolled. This is a large number for the kindergarten. It receives most hearty support from all the parents of Lahaina. The larger proportion this year is, as usual, from the Japanese.

H. B. Penhallow, Geo. P. Cooke and some others nominated at the recent Republican convention held at Wailuku spent a day or two on the Lahaina side of Maui in the campaign. They leave on Wednesday this week in company with still more of the politicians for Hana and vicinity. The trip will take at least seven days.

Hugh Howell escorted the Maui Loan Commission through the Olinakula pipe-line region last Sunday. It was an all-day ride. The party returned to Wailuku late in the evening.

Mrs. James C. Foss, Jr., left on Saturday's Larline for an extended vacation on the coast.

PONY ACT IS REAL WINNER

"Dat 'I'll pony" as John Hedges colored gentleman, called it, was the star of the show at the Liberty theatre last night, when Leon Morris' wrestling ponies were featured on a bill full of good things.

Three Shetlands, handsome animals, too, Mr. Leon Morris and the aforesaid John Hedges, make up the pony act, which is one of the best animal turns ever seen here. The ponies are finely trained, and they seem to enjoy the performance just as much as the people in the house.

Mistah Hedges is the gentleman who undertakes to throw the ponies, catch-as-catch-can, and he has his hands full. While he is tackling the bigger equine, the "L.I. feller" comes around and bites him, butts him, kicks him and otherwise maltreats him. The comedy is fast and furious. The best thing about this act is that it has a human flavor even to what the ponies do. It is a big winner with the children.

Tae La Boheme trio, the Lancaster Opera Company and the Patterson art models round out a generous bill.

At a meeting of the Associated Physicians of Song Island, 200 prominent doctors of Brooklyn and Long Island voluntarily pledged their bodies after death to the dissecting table.

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—that's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

A delightful surprise awaits, particularly those who have been careless, whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use of Danderine, when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp.
